

Creative Problem Solving

Solving problems is the ultimate human challenge and we all approach them in our own unique way. Our personality, our training and our experience all subtly direct our problem solving abilities in different ways. Are we even solving the right problem?

Our Creative Problem Solving programmes are designed to significantly enhance business potential by improving innovation and creativity capabilities in the workplace. Attendees are shown how to think in different ways, utilise external experiences and come up with amazing insights into problem resolution.

Typical areas covered include:

- Problem solving techniques
- Defining the problem
- Creative thinking
- Breaking mental habits
- Thinking processes
- Mind mapping
- Effective brainstorming
- Analysing problems
- Deciding on solutions
- Planning actions & monitoring results
